PRESS RELEASE SUMMER 2009

White Rabbit England is delighted to announce their award winning gift
Winner The Gift Of The Year 2009 in the UK Made Catagory...

New bone china Rabbit Light

Our Award winning bone china light is designed by White Rabbit England and carefully handcrafted by potters in the Staffordshire Potteries. The Rabbit itself is based on the company logo, which was originally chosen to bring good luck and now, fittingly seems to have done so. Also to be able to make product again in the UK is something the company was keen to do. "We are so thrilled to have won in the UK made Catagory and also to win with the White Rabbit design which is our company's mascot really helps the brand! The design will hopefully appeal to the broad spectrum of the gift market from babies to grandmas or simply rabbit lovers!"

Rabbit light (includes electric fitting, low voltage transformer and bulb) £59
